

Our Approach to the Curriculum

Intent

A broad, ambitious and inclusive curriculum
Teaching new skills in sequence from individual starting points
Positive relationships and personalized approaches
Preparing children for their next steps and adulthood

Implementation

A small steps approach based on play and sensory experiences
Regular assessments to identify gaps and planned next steps
Creative practice focusing on children's unique needs
Teaching that promotes independence and emotional resilience

Impact

Confident learners ready for the next stage of their journey
Achieving well from their individual starting points
Progress and achievements regularly shared with parents & carers
Children are effective communicators

'Communication is everything' is central to our curriculum
