

Some of the skills we teach related to reading

Range 1: To touch and handle books through sensory exploration.

Range 1: To show a preference for certain images.

Range 1: To show a recognition of a key object and what it signifies.

Range 1: To enjoy looking at books and being read to.

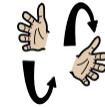

Range 2: To notice and recognise pictures and symbols and what they stand for.

Range 2: To look at pictures in books.

Range 2: To show recognition of photographs

Range 2: To respond to signing and gestures.

Range 3: To be interested in and anticipate books and rhymes.

Range 3: To have favourite books or rhymes.

Range 3: To join in with actions in books and rhymes.

Range 3: To join in with the sounds in books and rhymes.

Range 4: To fill in the missing word or phrase in known stories or rhymes.

Range 4: To recognise familiar logos or icons.

Range 4: To repeat and use actions from familiar stories.

Range 4: To repeat and use words or phrases from familiar stories.